

Leading as Equals

A workshop designed to generate significant results for your leaders and your business.

This powerful in-house executive workshop will

- ✓ inspire and energise
- ✓ ignite new thinking and
- ✓ unlock the capacity to achieve extraordinary results.

Delivered over two afternoons, a fortnight apart, this workshop is tailored to suit the needs of your executive team and has as its objective to

- inspire, motivate and encourage participants to embrace themselves as leaders
- ignite passion, enthusiasm and commitment to achieve extraordinary results
- identify a breakthrough project that will deliver significant results
- develop a leadership plan to enlist stakeholders, achieve results and deliver value.

During our time together participants

- learn more about themselves and each other
- explore the nature of leadership
- recognise the power of self belief, commitment and passion
- determine how to effect change through organisational leadership
- articulate a compelling personal and team vision
- practice using explicit and compelling language
- identify a breakthrough result they are committed to working together to achieve
- develop a plan to achieve it.

Optional Coaching

To sustain momentum towards achieving results, subsequent group coaching sessions can be provided to

- review progress
- reflect on success or otherwise of practicing different leadership behaviours and strategies
- provide encourage and generate ongoing action
- monitor and celebrate success.

Testimonials from a recent ANU leadership program –

- “This course helped me identify how I could deliver outcomes through the enlistment of others”
- “I’m more aware of my leadership strengths and weaknesses”
- “Be encouraged to take a leap!”
- “Brilliant, perfect model engaging everyone.”
- “Shared examples of influencing change that was inspiring”
- “Planning for the leadership project was invaluable.”

For further information call me on 0411055525 or email Deborah@deborahmay.com